

U.S. Army Health Professions Scholarship Night

Guest Speaker Lieutenant Colonel Jason Seery, MD, FACS serves as the Director, U.S. Army Trauma Training Center at Jackson-Memorial Hospital/Ryder Trauma Center in Miami, Florida.

Join us to learn how to get 100% of your medical school paid and be part of one the most prestigious and recognized medical organizations in the world:

The U.S. Army Medical Department

- Meet and speak with medical students currently receiving the scholarship.
- Family members, friends, and mentors are encouraged to attend.
- Light refreshments will be provided.
- Seating is limited. Please R.S.V.P. and indicate number of guests.
- If you are unable to attend but wish to learn more, call for a convenient meeting.
- The Scholarship Night will be held from 6:30 pm until 8:30 pm.
- Available 2 nights, for your convenience.

November 12, 2014

Wayne State University
David Adamany Library, Bernath Auditorium
656 West Kirby Street
Detroit, MI 48201

November 13, 2014

University of Michigan
Angell Hall, Room G243
435 South State Street
Ann Arbor, MI 48109

Staff Sergeant Michael Welsh
Health Care Career Counselor
Cell: 440-263-2452; Office: 313-441-1673
E-Mail: michael.j.welsh30.mil@mail.mil

ARMY STRONG™