COMMENCEMENT ETIQUETTE

Commencement is an exciting and memorable occasion for all of our graduates, but it is also a solemn one. Leaving before the ceremony has ended is disruptive and disrespectful to others. Graduates and their guests are expected to remain for the entire ceremony. The last graduate to cross the stage should expect to receive the same honor as the first, so please show consideration for all graduates by remaining seated until the conclusion of the ceremony.

Please refrain from excessive talking, cheering, and the use of noisemakers and other distractions, as this takes away from the dignity of the ceremony. Cellphones, beepers and watches with alarms can also be distracting. Out of respect for all graduates and guests, please switch any and all of your electronic equipment to silent, vibrate or off.

Please observe the instructions and maintain respectful silence, especially during presentations.

Your cooperation will enhance the enjoyment and remembrance of this joyous event for all.

RECOGNITION FOR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Students who attain high scholastic achievement are denoted by an asterisk after their name. The official list of graduates cited for cum laude (*), magna cum laude () or summa cum laude ( will be compiled subsequently and their diplomas will carry the appropriate notation. This practice is observed at the undergraduate level only.

Students who have achieved distinction by completing the requirements for department and/or university honors are designated in the program book by (DH) for department honors and (UH) for university honors. Their diplomas acknowledge these scholastic achievements. Students graduating with honors conferred by departments, schools and colleges, and by the Irvin D. Reid Honors College are eligible to wear a gold collar in recognition of their achievements.

John Corvino, Ph.D., is dean of the Irvin D. Reid Honors College.

PROGRAM BOOK

Names submitted for the program book were compiled by lists submitted by graduate applications. There will be no program reprints to accommodate incorrect spelling or missing names. Due to publication deadlines, names and honor designations of students added to the graduation list after March 11, 2023, will not appear in the program book.

The appearance of a name, recognition for academic achievement, and department and university honors on the following lists is presumptive but not conclusive of graduation. Participation in the commencement ceremony does not constitute graduation. Academic records will show the graduation date and recognition for academic achievement when degrees have been certified. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this program’s content. Any omissions or errors are unintentional.

THANK YOU

The Office of University Commencement would like to thank the students, faculty and staff who have volunteered their time and efforts as guest services volunteers or ceremony services volunteers for the May 2023 commencement ceremonies.

We would also like to thank the many university offices and departments for the services they provide to make these ceremonies successful:

Office of the Board of Governors
Academic Senate
Academy of Scholars
Dean of Students Office
Facilities Planning and Management
Marketing and Communications
Media Services
Office of the President
Office of Procurement and Strategic Sourcing
Office of the Registrar
Risk Management
University Television
WSU Alumni Association

Thank you to the college and school deans, their office staff, and academic personnel for their efforts and work with the commencement office to ensure our students are able to participate in this momentous occasion.
HYMN TO WAYNE
To thee, our Alma Mater,
Homage we bring.
Brave hearts raise grateful voices
Thy praise to sing.
Young art thou, young and strong;
Renowned shalt thou live, and long;
Honors to thee will throng-
And Fame to thee cling.
We laud thee, Alma Mater,
Guardian of Right.
Thou art our guide, our mentor-
Thy name shines bright.
Keep Learning's light aflare,
And hold Truth a sacred aim.
All hail to thy might.

Nicholas Stanley Oates, 1929

THE WSU MACE
The Academic Mace of Wayne State University is a ceremonial scepter whose features relate to the ancient maces used by universities worldwide. Though a symbol of the highest ideals of humankind, many maces exhibit the main characteristics of their most ancient relative, the medieval battle mace or war club.

The university's 51-inch mace consists of layers of carved ebony held in place by a tubular shaft. By tradition, it is carried by the president of the Academy of Scholars or a representative, and occupies a prominent place before those who attend and conduct the commencement ceremony. It is a symbolic weapon to protect and proclaim the ideals of harmony, truth, justice and learning.

The Academic Mace of Wayne State University is a gift of Sara and Melvin Maxwell Smith. A 1939 graduate of the university, Mr. Smith was for many years a generous contributor to the artistic enrichment of campus life.

The Academic Mace was designed and created in 1984 by Philip Fike, professor of art.

Thank you to the following members of the Academy of Scholars for their participation as mace bearers for the May 2023 commencement ceremonies: Dr. M. Safwan Badr, Dr. Mark Baskaran, Dr. Stephanie Brock, Dr. Feng Lin and Dr. Mark Luborsky. We sincerely appreciate their support.
THE WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY
BOARD OF GOVERNORS

The governors of Wayne State University and their successors in office constitute a body corporate known as the Board of Governors of Wayne State University, in accordance with the Constitution of the State of Michigan. The board consists of eight members elected by the people of Michigan for eight-year terms. Each governor holds office until completion of the term and a successor has been nominated and elected in statewide elections. All vacancies that occur within the eight-year terms are filled through appointment by the governor of the state. Members of the board serve without compensation but are entitled to necessary expenses incurred in connection with the duties of their office.

The Board of Governors elects the president of the university and has general supervision of Wayne State University and the control and directions of all expenditures from university funds. It enacts bylaws and regulations for the conduct of its business and for the governance of the university. It sets tuition and policy for other fees and charges; determines the compensation to be paid for services; confers degrees; sets the policy for management of gifts, grants, bequests, agreements and contracts; and leases or disposes of property.

Michigan’s constitutional system of independent, elected boards to govern its universities is different from systems of most other states. It has helped Michigan to develop and preserve one of the nation’s finest systems of colleges and universities. Each governing board devotes itself to one university and is able to work carefully to develop and nurture the excellence of that institution. The constitutional independence of the boards protects the universities from political interference; the election of boards by the voters assures that universities remain responsible to the public at large.
Dear graduate,

Congratulations! Graduating from Wayne State University is a remarkable achievement, so take time to celebrate all the hard work and sacrifice it took to get here.

As you arrive at this milestone, I’m confident your time at Wayne State has prepared you to reach many more. You’ve shown that you are well equipped to succeed in an ever-changing and diverse world. You’ll certainly benefit from your many hours of study, and also the opportunities you’ve had to engage with the world outside the classroom from our campus in Detroit. This gives you a distinct advantage.

Yet, the richest reward of your time here at Wayne State may be the wisdom you’ve gained, which has made you a productive, compassionate and thoughtful citizen, committed to making a difference in your community.

Wayne State demanded your best because we wanted you to reach your full potential as a student. Today, we ask for one more thing: Keep in touch. Stay engaged with the university, and help a new generation access the transformative opportunities you have had here.

This is a bittersweet letter for me to write, as this is the last commencement ceremony I’ll attend as president. Leading this great university has been the privilege of a lifetime; without a doubt, the best part of my presidency has been meeting and interacting with so many students and alumni. Wayne State Warriors amaze me every day with their stories of perseverance in the face of obstacles, their grace under pressure, their curiosity, their thirst for excellence and their community-mindedness. You have been an inspiration, and I know that you will move on to pursue great and interesting lives.

We trust that your experience at Wayne State University has kindled a lifelong passion for learning. My very best wishes to you and to the entire Class of 2023!

Sincerely,

STUDENT COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

Kennedy Hunter Watson
College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Kennedy Hunter Watson is graduating with a bachelor of science in neuroscience from the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. She is an accomplished scholar who has dedicated herself to the study of neuroscience and chemistry, excelled in her academic pursuits, and contributed immensely to the scientific community.

During her undergraduate years, Watson worked in various research labs focused on neurodegeneration and pain. Her contributions have been instrumental in advancing the understanding of these conditions and finding possible treatments. Additionally, she has been an excellent teacher, imparting her knowledge and skills to others as she taught Organic Chemistry I and II.

Watson’s dedication and hard work have not gone unnoticed, and she was accepted into the prestigious Maximizing Access to Research Careers program, which supports students pursuing graduate degrees in STEM fields. This opportunity further solidified her passion for neuroscience and her desire to make a difference in the world through her research.

After graduating, Watson will move to North Carolina to attend Wake Forest University as she pursues her Ph.D. in neuroscience. With her impressive academic and research background, she is poised to make significant contributions to the field of neuroscience and beyond for students pursuing graduate degrees in STEM fields.

Ibrahim Ahmad
College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Ibrahim Ahmad is a distinguished third-year senior graduating with a bachelor degree in public affairs and a minor in peace and conflict studies. On campus, he has demonstrated strong leadership skills through his various roles, including serving as a representative of Wayne State University to the Michigan Department of State on Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson’s Collegiate Advisory Task Force, director of government affairs on the Student Senate, and chair of professional development for the Lebanese Student Association.

Throughout his academic career, Ahmad has earned multiple honors and recognitions, including being named to the CLAS dean’s list each semester of his attendance and receiving the Detroit Leadership Award; the David Adamany–Wayne State Alumni Association Endowed Scholarship; the Roumell Family Scholarship in Research, Internship, Service, and Engagement; and the Dorothy C. Dolan Endowed Scholarship.

Ahmad is a member of the Pi Alpha Alpha Global Honor Society for Public Affairs and Administration and the Arab America Foundation’s 20 Under 20 Class of 2022, which recognized his superb academic success, outstanding leadership in the metro Detroit community, and a dedication to a career in American diplomacy and commitment to Arab American heritage and culture.

In addition, Ahmad is the recipient of the U.S. State Department’s highly competitive and prestigious Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Graduate Fellowship Program. The fellowship will fully fund his graduate career starting in the fall of 2023, when he will attend Georgetown University to pursue a master’s in the School of Foreign Service. Upon conferment of his master’s, Ahmad will enter the U.S. Foreign Service as a diplomat and represent our nation abroad.
Samantha Tirakian
Mike Ilitch School of Business

Samantha Tirakian is graduating with a master of business administration from the Mike Ilitch School of Business. Tirakian also earned a bachelor of science in accounting from Wayne State University in May 2022, graduating summa cum laude with university honors and a 3.95 GPA. As a member of the Accelerated Graduate Enrollment (AGRADE) program, Tirakian simultaneously took undergraduate and graduate courses, which shortened the time to her M.B.A.

Tirakian’s many academic achievements include being on the dean’s list each semester and serving as a member of the Irvin D. Reid Honors College, receiving a 2022 PCAOB Scholarship, and being named a 2022 Mike Ilitch School of Business 25 Under 25 awardee. As an undergraduate student, Tirakian co-authored an SEC comment letter on a proposed disclosure requirement on registrants’ ESG (environmental, social, governance) efforts with former Wayne State Chair of Accounting M. Roling. Her undergraduate university honors thesis was titled, “Will SEC-mandated ESG disclosures provide the necessary outcome to effectively combat climate change?”

Outside the classroom, Tirakian held two internships and was extensively involved with the Wayne State community. She was a member of the WSU B-Start program, a peer mentor for WSU’s Learning Communities program and an informal accounting peer tutor.

Following an internship at KPMG in Detroit as an audit intern, Tirakian accepted a full-time position as an audit associate for fall 2023. Tirakian plans to become a CPA with specialization in auditing and financial reporting fraud investigation.

LaTricia Mitchell
School of Social Work

LaTricia Mitchell is graduating with a dual-title master of social work and infant mental health from the School of Social Work. She received her undergraduate degree in Africana studies from The College of Wooster. While at Wayne State, Mitchell was involved with the National Association of Social Workers, the National Association of Black Social Workers, the Michigan Association for Infant Mental Health and WSU’s Rad(ical) Social Workers.

Mitchell first interned with Big Brothers Big Sisters, working closely with volunteers and families. Her second placement was a position with Michigan Medicine. She served as a direct clinician in psychiatry, seeing minoritized children and caregivers with complex trauma. She provided qualitative coding support to Rebeccah Sokol’s Partners for Youth Safety and Well-Being project throughout the 2021-22 academic year and is currently a student researcher in Carolyn Dayton’s lab, assisting with the “Baby on Board” study. Mitchell recently presented at Wayne State’s Social Work Research Symposium, exploring the significance of depression among the study’s African American fathers.

Mitchell is a member of the Phi Alpha Honor Society and a recipient of the Graduate Professional Scholarship, Annette Sniderman Freedman Scholarship and Deborah Weatherston Scholarship. She recently gave a speech titled “Jumping the Turnstile: On Access and Opportunity.” These reflections were in light of All Women Are Leaders, the annual student award at Michigan Medicine highlighting historically marginalized women in leadership. After receiving her M.S.W. and IMH-DT, Mitchell will continue as a clinician and community worker. She is determined to bring an end to the overdiagnosis of conduct disorders in Black boys as well as the criminalization of culturally informed play and parenting styles.

Mitchell lives as a truth-teller, joy-bringer, abolitionist, faith community leader and lover of stories. Beyond these and other identifiers, she is most grateful to be a daughter, a sibling and a friend to those around her.
Jacqueline Williams
School of Medicine

Jacqueline Williams is graduating with a master of science in genetic counseling from the School of Medicine. She also earned her bachelor of science in clinical laboratory science from Wayne State.

Williams started her career at the DMC virology/serology laboratory as a medical technologist. After finding her specialty interest in genetics, she furthered her career by transitioning to work for many years in the cytogenetic laboratories at DMC and then at Beaumont Hospital.

In her spare time, Williams gained advocacy and crisis training to support others through the organizations Empower Work and IMALIVE. Through interactions with genetic counselors while working in the prenatal cytogenetics area, she gained an even greater appreciation for the genetic counseling field. Having completed her undergraduate training at Wayne State, she enthusiastically sought placement in its genetic counseling program. Upon acceptance, she was awarded the Dean’s Diversity Master’s Scholarship.

Throughout her graduate experience, Williams has continued working in cytogenetics and has served as a member on the Genetic Counseling Programs Admissions Committee. She is a member of both the National Society of Genetic Counselors (NSGC) and the NSGC Pediatrics and Clinical Genetics Special Interest Group. After graduation, she will begin her career as a pediatric genetic counselor at Corewell Health East.

Williams is also a wife and mother of two children — one in college at Michigan State University and the other graduating from high school this year. She finds her passion and inspiration to continue serving the metro Detroit area from her husband, who was born and raised in the area and is now executive director of food and nutrition for Detroit Public Schools.

Yousra Zouani
College of Engineering

Yousra Zouani is graduating with a bachelor of science in biomedical engineering from the College of Engineering. She has also earned university honors and biomedical honors.

Zouani is passionate about developing new technologies to improve human health, safety and comfort. As a participant of the Undergraduate Research Opportunity Program, she completed research at Wayne State’s School of Medicine, focusing on the relationship between mosquitoes and water mites.

Zouani also collaborated with researchers at Michigan Medicine and investigated how physicians treat obesity. She spent time volunteering at Beaumont Hospital, assisting patients and visiting families. In her extracurriculars, Zouani served as the vice president of the Engineering Student Senate and dedicated her time to supporting engineering student organizations. She served on the boards of the Biomedical Engineering Society and the Society of Computer Developers, connecting students with resources to improve their academic skill set, and created an environment of collaboration among students. Zouani’s most significant accomplishment has been her service as the president of the Student Senate. Under her leadership, the senate developed several projects and programs to improve the campus environment.

Zouani aims to use her skills to build a career centered around developing technologies to make health care more accessible and equitable. She takes great pride in being a Warrior and hopes to carry the Wayne State legacy in everything she does.

ACADEMY OF SCHOLARS

The Academy of Scholars of Wayne State University was approved by resolution of the Board of Governors in 1979.

The Academy of Scholars is committed to recognizing outstanding excellence in scholarship and in creative achievement of the faculty members at Wayne State University. The academy's founding purpose was and has remained to raise the scholastic prestige of the university by bringing the most prominent academic experts to campus under its aegis and to create a community of scholars from among its most celebrated researchers. Appointment to the academy is the highest recognition that may be bestowed upon faculty members by their colleagues.

CAPS, GOWNS AND HOODS

One of the most colorful features of an academic procession is the appearance of the graduates, faculty, cabinet and Board of Governors in full academic costume. These caps, gowns and hoods have long histories, and their patterns and colors have special significance.

The gown recalls the time when all students in centers of higher learning were members of the clergy and, therefore, wore garments the church considered proper.

The custom of wearing a cap comes from the Roman practice of giving slaves the right to wear a cap when they were granted their freedom. The Oxford or "mortarboard" cap worn today is thought to be a combination of the close-fitting cap worn indoors by scholars of the Middle Ages and the soft square biretta worn outdoors. The tuft on the early cap has been replaced by a colored tassel that signifies the college granting the degree.

In modern universities, the distinctive mark of a degree is the hood, which in its earliest form was simply an article of clothing. Since the churches and lecture halls of European universities were cold, drafty places, scholars wore hoods as head coverings, attached to a cape or worn separately.

American universities, unlike those of England and Europe, have adopted a standard code of academic costume. The design of the gown; the color of the tassel; and the pattern, length and colors of the hood all have special meaning.

Each graduate wears a gown appropriate to the degree granted. The bachelor's gown is closed at the throat and has long, pointed sleeves. The master's gown has oblong sleeves, open at the wrists, and tapers at the back in a square cut. The doctoral gown is faced with velvet and has bell-shaped sleeves. Each sleeve carries three bars of velvet, or chevrons. Wayne State uses a specially designed green gown for its Ph.D. and Ed.D. candidates.

The most colorful part of the costume is the hood. The color of the velvet trim indicates the department in which the degree was granted; the width corresponds to the level of the degree. At this ceremony, candidates for master's and doctoral degrees wear hoods with lining in the university's colors.

Colors of tassels and college standards:

- Business: Drab
- Education: Light Blue
- Engineering: Orange
- Fine, Performing and Communication Arts: Brown
- Graduate Studies: Crimson
- Law: Purple
- Liberal Arts and Sciences: White
- Information Sciences: Yellow
- Medicine: Green
- Nursing: Apricot
- Pharmacy and Health Sciences: Olive
- Social Work: Citron
Congratulations from the Wayne State University Alumni Association

On behalf of the Wayne State University Alumni Association, congratulations on your graduation!

We applaud you for reaching this important milestone after years of hard work and dedication. As you prepare to embark on the next phase of your life, you are now one of more than 294,000 Wayne State University distinguished alumni from all over the world and automatically a lifetime member of the Alumni Association.

We encourage you to stay connected by visiting campus often, staying informed, volunteering and attending alumni events. WSU alumni are passionate about our university community, and the Alumni Association is here to support your professional and personal success through our diverse slate of alumni programs, events and initiatives.

The Alumni Association is extremely proud of your accomplishments. We welcome you, congratulate you and look forward to working together with you to make Wayne State University Warrior Strong.

Dr. Tosha Padgett Brown ’99
President, WSU Alumni Association Board of Directors
