Digital and Network Forensics

Master Advanced Digital and Network Forensics in this course. During this cybersecurity course, you will learn advanced networking forensics skills and techniques.

You will gain practical experience through intensive lab exercises that simulate real-world scenarios covering investigation and recovery of data in networks, physical interception, traffic acquisition, attack detection, analysis of wireless attacks and protocol analysis, content searching and matching. The course focuses on the centralizing and investigating of logging systems as well as network devices.

For more information, please email cybersec@wayne.edu.

Who Should Attend?
- Network Administrators
- Site Administrators
- Security professionals
- Security Officers
- Auditors

$1899  Fee includes materials.

Registration (by telephone, mail or fax)
313-577-4665 (M-F, 9 am—4 pm) or 313-577-4354 (fax)
Register and pay by credit card at least one week before class starts.
No refunds will be given after the course starts.

Fee: 1899.00

___Visa  ___MasterCard  ___ Discover

___Check: Payable to Wayne State University

Signature

3-digit code