CHECK only ONE semester for which this appeal applies: Fall 2022 Winter 2023 Spring-Summer 2023

NOTICE: If you are filing an appeal for the first time, DO NOT complete this form, but do submit the Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal & Academic Action Plan form

- Use this form only if this is not your first SAP appeal.
- You must also submit the Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal & Academic Action Plan form.

A Student Improvement Plan is an academic plan that, if followed, will ensure that you are able to meet satisfactory academic progress (SAP) standards by a specific point in time. We will review your entire academic history and federal loan debt. Earning multiple degrees and/or having high federal student loan debt may result in a denial of an appeal.

Forms submitted without ONE of the following will be denied:

- An academic plan in Degree Works that has been locked by your academic advisor, OR
- ATTACH an academic plan signed by an academic advisor

Student agreement
To indicate you have read and understand each of your responsibilities, place your initials beside each line.
<input type="text"/>	I understand that I am eligible for aid only if I enroll in courses required for my degree or program.
<input type="text"/>	I agree to register for the classes I selected with the guidance of my academic advisor and as outlined in my academic plan, provided I am eligible to continue at Wayne State University.
<input type="text"/>	I agree to contact my academic advisor immediately if I need to revise my academic plan.
<input type="text"/>	I agree to attend classes beginning with the first class of the semester.
<input type="text"/>	I agree to the following targets for academic improvement developed with my academic advisors:

NOTICE: Submission of an appeal form does not guarantee approval. If your appeal is approved, you will be on financial aid probation. You must meet the academic standards in the approval email sent to your WSU email account in order to receive aid. If your appeal is denied, you are not eligible for financial aid. You must meet SAP standards to become eligible for financial aid.

Notice: You must also submit the Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal & Academic Action Plan form.
