Satisfactory academic progress standards for students in the MD Program

The Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy is available on the financial aid website: wayne.edu/financial-aid/medicine/policies/.

Student academic progress is reviewed at the end of each academic year. Pace of progress (the percentage of courses completed) and the maximum time frame are measured in credit hours only whether enrollment is full- or part-time.

Minimum qualitative requirements: Satisfactory completion of all course requirements and examinations.

Pace of progression: At least 67% of all credit hours attempted must have successfully passing grades. The pace of progress is calculated by dividing cumulative hours that you successfully complete by the cumulative hours you have attempted.

Maximum time frame: School of Medicine MD degrees generally require four years of coursework. School of Medicine academic policies require completion of attempted coursework within seven years.

Appeal Decision Notification

The decision concerning your appeal will be sent to your WSU email address and posted in the Financial Aid portal in Academica.

Note: Outstanding grades may change or delay the decision.

If your SAP appeal is approved, you will be placed on Financial Aid Probation for the payment period. If your academic progress is unsatisfactory at the end of the probationary period, you can continue to receive financial aid only if you are complying with the requirements of your Academic Action Plan.

If you exceed the maximum time frame for program completion, financial aid can be used only to pay for the courses required for your degree or eligible program completion.

The financial aid SAP policy is separate from the School of Medicine academic regulations.

NOTICE: Submission of an appeal form does not guarantee approval. If your appeal is approved, you will be placed on financial aid probation. You must follow your Academic Plan to receive aid. If your appeal is denied, you are not eligible for financial aid.
