Financial aid terms & conditions

Additional details are on the financial aid website at wayne.edu/financial-aid/receiving.

- All student financial aid awards are contingent on the availability of funds and are subject to change based on the student's academic status, academic program, state residency, enrollment status, Satisfactory Academic Progress, or changes made by the student or WSU.
- To remain eligible for financial aid funds, you must be admitted, enrolled and taking courses required for a degree or eligible program.
- At the time Federal Direct Loan funds are disbursed, your enrollment status must be least half time.
- Financial aid recipients are expected to attend all courses throughout the semester. Your instructor is required to confirm your participation in class. If your participation in class is not confirmed by your instructor this may affect the amount of financial aid you will receive.
- If you withdraw or fail to earn credit in all of your courses, you may be required to repay a portion of your aid back to the university.
- Financial aid funds can be used only to pay for authorized educational expenses for attendance at WSU.
