Financial aid terms & conditions

☐ Accept ☐ Decline/Rescind AUTTAC

I accept the financial aid terms and conditions. If you decline, you will not be eligible for financial aid and any funds already disbursed will be cancelled.

- All student financial aid awards are contingent on the availability of funds and are subject to change based on the student's academic status, academic program, state residency, enrollment status, Satisfactory Academic Progress, or changes made by the student or WSU.

- You must be admitted, enrolled and taking courses required for a degree or eligible program to remain eligible for financial aid funds.

- You must be registered at least half time at the time we disburse your federal direct loan funds.

- Financial aid recipients are expected to attend all courses throughout the semester. Your instructor is required to confirm your participation in class. If your participation in class is not confirmed by your instructor this may affect the amount of financial aid you will receive.

- If you withdraw or fail to earn credit in all of your courses, you may be required to repay a portion of your aid back to the university.

- Financial aid funds may only be used to pay for authorized educational expenses for attendance at WSU.

Detailed terms & conditions are available on our website at wayne.edu/financial-aid/receiving.
