

Housing and Residential Life

Open House Housing - 2014

Thank you for your interest in the Open House at Wayne State University. Wayne State is a premier research university located in the University Cultural Center in the heart of Detroit's Midtown neighborhood, which is home to world-class museums, theaters, libraries, concert halls and professional sports venues. It's a great place to live, work and play.

Participants in the Open house will stay in a Wayne State University Residence Hall. Participants will share a room with another prospective student. Accommodations include:

- private baths
- air conditioning
- on site laundry facility
- kitchenettes on odd numbered floors
- staffed 24 hour reception desk
- card access entry system
- wireless Internet access
- complimentary guest internet access ID

Additional information regarding the Wayne State University Residence halls may be found at www.housing.wayne.edu. Please note that smoking and alcohol are not permitted inside any of the residence halls. University policy forbids smoking within 25 feet of all building entrances.

Before you sign, read the contract and the appropriate web page sections of the WSU Guide to Community Living and the Student Code of Conduct carefully as they are incorporated by reference and made a part of the contract. Students without web access may request the documentation in printed form. All students participating in the Open House agree to abide by the WSU Guide to Community Living and the Student Code of Conduct. You should be familiar with the contents of both, as you will be held responsible for your actions. Should your actions violate the Student Conduct Code, then they may be reported to your current institution.

Prospective students participating in the October Open House will be housed for the night of Friday, October 10, 2014. No student may stay more than one night as part of the Open House .

Key and access card pick up is available at Yousif B. Ghafari Residence Hall located at 695 Williams Mall Detroit, MI 48202 (front desk: 313-577-9700). Failure to return the room key will result in a fee of $150.00.

Questions related to housing may be directed to Samantha Steckloff by email at ey3669@wayne.edu or by phone at 313-577-9272.
